

BLACK BEAR NAVY

NAVY JROTC at PISGAH HIGH Preparing Students for College and Life

➤ Pisgah's Navy Junior Reserve Officers Corps assists students in grades 9th-12th in developing a high degree of self motivation, individual discipline, and leadership.

➤ We teach "skills for life" in order to compete in today's competitive society.

➤ Our program promotes patriotism, however the majority of our students do not join the military. We stress college and trade schools!

➤ We are not recruiters for the military and there are no obligations to the military.

➤ UNIFORMS ARE FREE.

➤ OK to be in other Sports, Band, etc:

➤ Pisgah's unit has received the state award of Distinguished Unit 17 times consecutively.

RIFLE / COLOR
GUARD TEAMS

Grayson Sluder

SCHOLARSHIPS : Over One Million Dollars awarded just in the last 8 years to PISGAH ROTC STUDENTS!

AIR RIFLE TEAM

ROTC TRIPS & CAMPS

- Washington, DC
- Pensacola, Florida
- The Citadel-Leadership Academy
- Leadership Camp/Navy Ball

FLY TWICE A YEAR!

PISGAH HIGH ROTC STUDENTS

Past and Present

Pisgah Class of 2005:
Jessica Hall
$400,000 Scholarship
US NAVAL ACADEMY

Pisgah Class of 2015:
Lauren Wilke (Freshman)
Basketball Player

Pisgah Class of 2012: Lulu Swanger-awarded over $100,000 in scholarships- Accepted to Meredith, Berea, APP State and Western Carolina. Plans on being a Social Worker

Pisgah Class of 2012-Will be attending Texas A&M under scholarship.
State Qualifier Wrestler

Pisgah Class of 2008:
Sydney Jones - Appalachian State University 2012 Grad with Major in Archeology.

Pisgah Class of 2007: Jess Foster - Graduated- University of Alabama
Army Officer

Pisgah Class of 2011: Matthew Long: currently attending Western Carolina. Awarded scholarship of 180,000 and Teaching Fellows. Plans on teaching High school Math.

Pisgah Class of 2012:
Morgan Mehaffey-Will be attending Western Carolina. Plans to be a Special Education Teacher.

